7. Library equipment should be used in a manner consistent with the proper use of each device. Equipment should not be mishandled or used in a way that can cause damage. Staff the right to end the use of equipment if deemed necessary.

3-D Printing Guidelines

1. Use of the 3D printer during free use times will be on a first-come, first-serve basis. Prints can also be requested by email at any time (see instructions below).
2. A staff member must be present to supervise the use of the 3D printer and manage the printing queue. Staff will have final say when determining the order of print jobs when there is a queue.
3. During free use times, prints will be limited to one hour or less. If sending a print via email, there is no print time limit.
4. The library reserves the right to refuse any 3D print request.
5. There is a charge for 3D printing, which is based on the amount of PLA filament used, maintenance of the machine and time needed to print items. The charge for printing will be $.50 per hour (or partial hour) of print time required.
6. The library's 3D printer may be used only for lawful purposes.

Submitting a Design for 3D Printing

1. Patrons can submit designs for printing remotely by email to leoniamakerspace@gmail.com.
2. Patrons must submit their files in one of the following formats in order for us to print it: .stl, .obj, or .thing. Files cannot be larger than 25MB.
3. Files will be printed as we receive requests and when staff is available to print files. Please allow several days for prints to be completed.
4. Staff will provide patrons with an estimate of the cost of the print via email. Patrons MUST pay the cost of the print at the time of pickup by cash or check. If payment is not made then items will be withheld.
5. Staff will work to make the most successful prints, but items must be accepted as is. Additional prints will not be made until first prints are paid for.
6. The files will be readied for printing in MakerWare software. The library will view all files in MakerWare before printing.
7. Items can be picked up at the Reference Desk after staff has sent notification that the print is ready.
